Raja Muda Selangor - RMS

#Throwback to SAY IGNITE 2017 last Saturday. I personally handed the inaugural SAY Champions award to four outstanding individuals who have contributed greatly towards the youth community: Hakim Alias - the guy who made a lot of effort to unite the arts scene in Selangor & Malaysia for the past 10 years through Rantai Art. Ngai Yuen Low the strong lady who has contributed so much in the entrepreneurship and arts scene amongst the youth especially women through Kakiseni. The inspirational Khai Aziz who has gone through a lot and now promoting Drug Free Youth Malaysia. Last but not least our former Selangor and National swimmer Mark Chua who has continued to help the sports scene and produce future pipeline of swimmers through Supersharkz swimming school. Amazing individuals and thank you for all the effort and contributions that you have given! #SAYchampions #sayignite2017 #selangoryouth #SAY #SAYCommuni

The founder of Drug Free Youth Associates, a national organization for drug-free youth, Doria is a proponent of the "straight society," which eschews alcohol, tobacco, and sometimes even meat. 2014 was the first time my band traveled to Kuala Lumpur to play. It was a life-changing experience for myself and especially my band at the time. We arrived at a venue called Blue Planet and one of the first bands we saw destroy the venue with live and positivity – not most parts and breakdowns – was a band called Second Combat, a straight edge youth-core inspired hardcore band from Malaysia. What I was seeing in front of my very own eyes was the Malaysian Muslim version of a hardcore scene. I will never forget that image – Ein the singer was completely surrounded by all sorts of Malaysian kids (punk, metal, hardcore) but ESPECIALLY Malaysian Muslim females wearing hijabs finger pointing the lyrics he was spouting out. The equipment at that show wasn't loud enough to hear everything but the kids in attendance were screaming the words so loud that all I could hear and feel was immense passion for this thing called hardcore from everyone in attendance who whole heartedly believed in it.

Fast forward to 2015 and I consider Ein one of Asia's greatest hardcore representatives because of the path that he has found for himself. Not only that, but because he took the deeds of hardcore out of sweaty club shows and into the ACTUAL streets trying to make a difference.

He started up an organization called Drug Free Youth Malaysia by trying to impact and change the lives of hundreds of thousands of people.

It is my immense honor to introduce Ein and his phenomenal work through this website...

LETTER OF AFFILIATION

Dear Mr. Aziz,

The Foundation for a Drug-Free World (FDFW) is a public benefit organization that empowers youth and adults with factual information about drugs so they can make informed decisions to be drug-free.

Through our international network of volunteers, FDFW makes educational materials available across every continent to students, parents, educators, volunteer organizations and government agencies – anyone with an interest in helping people lead lives free from drug abuse. Our objective is to work shoulder-to-shoulder with prevention-minded organizations – sectarian as well as churches and faith-based nonprofits – to reach millions of people each year who are touched by the Foundation's life-saving "let's reach kids before drugs do" message.

We are pleased to form an affiliation of the Foundation for a Drug-Free World with your nonprofit, Drug-Free Youth Association Malaysia. With this acknowledgement, you may launch drug awareness campaigns, education presentations and classes, distribution events and other activities that forward the above objective and suitably represent the Foundation's standards.

Your efforts and successes in advancing the Foundation's mission will be reviewed annually by the Board. We will do our very best to service your good work there under the banner of Drug-Free Youth Association Malaysia. We wish you all the best for future endeavors.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. Khai,

APPRECIATION FOR SPEAKING AT THE PEACE CHAT SERIES

Greetings of Peace!

The Global Peace Foundation (GPF) Malaysia would like to express our sincere appreciation to you for being the guest speaker at our first Peace Chat Series: The Rising Heroes of the Social Sector on the 29th of August 2014.

Even for such a small-scaled gathering, the crowd was highly enthusiastic and engaged throughout the session. The stories you shared rekindled enthusiasm among our audience, brought new insights and it has surely planted seeds for other aspiring changemakers. It inspired us to hear how you turned your passion in music and a noble intention into a movement to help underprivileged youth. In short, we are very pleased with this meaningful chat session with you and Mr. Chew Jern Ken from Projek Rumah Ibadat Kita.

The Global Peace Foundation is committed to empower youth to make a positive difference in the society and be a 'Changemaker'. We would like to invite you to be part of this global movement to elevate humanity towards building a world of One Family under God. We wish you continued successes in your future endeavours.

Thank you.

Yours truly,

DR. TEH SU THYE
